Your business can now be a Mail Service Provider on our website as well as on www.usps.com. Information about your company will be posted on our website as a supporter of your local PCC. Customers seeking mail related services can search a list of providers. You can be on that list as well as have your company logo on our local PCC website. The annual flat-rate fee is $100 to participate in the program, and your company must be a member of the PCC.

Go to usps.com/nationalpcc and enter Mail Service Provider Program in the search box. When you are on the page, scroll to the bottom and click on “Collection Information Form” to register.

The PCC gives you tools to get your business noticed!

The mission of the Postal Customer Council is to:

- Promote local cooperation & support of Postal Service initiatives.
- Foster a close working relationship between the Postal Service & business mailers.
- Share information & exchange ideas about new & existing Postal Service products, services, programs, and procedures that affect business mailers.
- Help PCC member organizations grow professionally through education.

Akron Canton PCC Awarded GOLD LEVEL

The Premier PCC Gold Level Award was presented to the council by Jordan Small, A/Vice President Network Operations on National PCC day, 9/16.

The PCC leveraged a new website to add value and also complement other communication channels that they provide members which promote meeting participation and provide education and tools to increase the value of mail.
